

Fact sheet on partner universities outside Japan

Typical aspects of stays at partner universities:

- Enrolment abroad as a “non-degree student”
- Tuition fees waived in the majority of cases
- Funding possible via scholarships/grants and under the Federal Training Assistance Act (BAföG)

Universities	Chongqing University (CU), Chongqing, China	Sichuan International Studies University (SISU), Chongqing, China	Tel Aviv University (TAU), Tel Aviv, Israel	University of Isfahan (UI), Isfahan, Iran	American University (AU), Washington, USA	University of North Carolina Wilmington (UNCW), Wilmington, USA
Tuition fees	Waiver of tuition fees for exchange students				USD8,500/semester	1 free place per year, plus places subject to payment of tuition fees (bachelor’s degree programme: USD7,930/semester, master’s degree programme: USD7,950/semester)
Start of academic year	Autumn
Autumn semester	September – January		October – January	September – January	August – December

Universities	Chongqing University	Sichuan International Studies University	Tel Aviv University	University of Isfahan	American University	University of North Carolina Wilmington
Spring semester	February – June			February – July	January – May
Study programme	Subject courses in English (only MA level) and Chinese	Subject courses	Subject courses in English and Hebrew, Hebrew language courses	Subject courses in Persian and English (only in individual cases), Persian language courses	For bachelor's degree students: various focuses within the framework of the Washington Semester International Certificate Program Seminars on 2 days per week, career practicum on 3 days per week	5 – 6 courses per semester from the following faculties (courses from different departments also possible): - College of Arts and Sciences - Cameron School of Business - College of Health & Human Services - Watson College of Education
Language of instruction	Chinese or English		Hebrew or English	Persian or English	English
Language course Free course in the national language	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Yes

Universities	Chongqing University	Sichuan International Studies University	Tel Aviv University	University of Isfahan	American University	University of North Carolina Wilmington
Online application with a covering letter stating order of preference (if applying for multiple universities), the desired programme/school and Transcript of Records in English issued by your subject or Student Services
Plus	<input type="checkbox"/> For subject courses in Chinese: HSK 4, for Business Administration /Economics: HSK 5 <input type="checkbox"/> For subject courses in English: IELTS – at least 6.0 points, TOEFL – at least 60 points	<input type="checkbox"/> Proof of proficiency in Chinese (where available)	<input type="checkbox"/> TOEFL – at least 89 points, IELTS – at least 6.5 points	<input type="checkbox"/> Proof of proficiency in Persian (where available)	<input type="checkbox"/> TOEFL – at least 80 points (at least 18 points each for speaking and listening), IELTS – at least 6.5 points	<input type="checkbox"/> TOEFL – at least 71 points, IELTS – at least 6.0 points
Accommodation	Hall of residence (two people per room), rent per semester: approx. €330	Hall of residence or off-campus	Exchange students must seek their own accommodation	In the guest house or student hotel on campus	The university will try to provide a place in a hall of residence; a place is not guaranteed, but students have all received places in the past.	